
THE ARCHIVES OF THE HISTORY OF AMERICAN PSYCHOLOGY

ANNOUNCES THE

SPRING COLLOQUIUM SERIES

1/29/07 Karl H. Pribram, M.D., Ph.D.
"What Makes Humanity Humane: New Insights from Brain Research"

2/8/07 James Butcher, Ph.D.
"MMPI and MMPI-2 Over Time: History, Developments, and Contemporary Perspectives"

2/13/07 Elizabeth Scarborough, Ph.D.
"Telling Women's Lives: Exclusion, Contributions and Experiences"

3/13/07 Jessica Henderson Daniel, Ph.D.
"Women of Color Psychologists: Claiming the Role of Leader"
12:30 - 2:00 pm / Student Union Room 312

4/3/07 Joseph L. White, Ph.D.
"The Birth and Evolution of the Modern Era of African American Psychology: One Man's Journey"
12:30 - 2:00 pm / Student Union Room 312

4/17/07 Nicholas Cummings, Ph.D., Sc.D.
"Psychology, the Stalwart Profession: Where Did We Come From, and Where Are We Going?
12:30 - 2:00 pm / Simmons Hall Auditorium Room 111

Contact Dorothy Gruich at 330-972-7285, email ahap@uakron.edu, or visit our web site at http://www.uakron.edu/ahap for further information or directions.