

CSAA FALL 2006 CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Wednesday, September 20, Folk Hall Auditorium, 6:00pm, refreshments at 5:30pm
AIA Lecture - “The Atlatl: A Prehistoric Weapon of Mass Destruction???” by Skeeter Kish, President of the Sugar Creek Chapter of the Archaeological Society of Ohio.

Saturday, September 23, Cascade Locks Park, 11:00am – 4:00pm
Archaeology and Oatmeal: The Past and Future at Cascade Locks Park. Experience an Ohio Archaeology Day event at the Schumacher Cascade Mill site located North Street just west of Howard Street. Activities include exhibits of archaeology and interpretation of the mill, displays of area prehistory, flintknapping and atlatl throwing demonstrations, a video on the Mill excavation, local history lectures, and more.

Friday, October 6, Folk Hall Auditorium, 6:00pm, refreshments at 5:30pm
AIA Lecture - “THE ARCHAEOLOGY OF NOMADS: AN ETHNOARCHAEOLOGICAL INTERPRETATION IN RURAL ANATOLIA” by Ronald Marchese, The University Of Minnesota at Duluth.

Saturday, October 21,
ATLATL DEMONSTRATION AND WORKSHOP with Ray Strischek former Atlatl World Champion.

Friday, October 27, 10:00 am – 2:00 pm, Olin 101
Artifact Road Show – archaeology exhibits, flintknapping demonstration and artifact identification.

November - AIA Lecturer to be announced

For more information, see our website

<http://www3.uakron.edu/anthro/csaa/index.htm>

Or contact Linda Whitman at 330-971-6179