

University of Akron
Department of Classical Studies, Anthropology and Archaeology

Certificate in Field Archaeology

The Certificate in Field Archaeology prepares the student for success in archaeological field work. The total coursework requirement is 18 credit hours chosen from two groups:

CFA Core Requirements ~ 9 Credits

All Certificate candidates are required to complete the following core courses

3240:400/500	Archaeological Theory	3
3240:440/540	Archaeological Lab Methods	3
3240:450/550	Archaeological Field School	3

Program Electives~9 Credits

All Certificate candidates are required to complete an additional 3 courses chosen from the following for the remaining 9 credit hours.

3240:410/510	Subsurface Geophysical Survey in Archaeology	3
3240:420/520	Archaeology of Ohio	3
3370:405/505	Archaeological Geology	3
3350:405/505	Geographic Information Systems	3
2980:121	Elementary Surveying	3

Note:

Students may, under extraordinary circumstances, make substitutions with the approval of the Archaeology Curriculum Committee and the Department Chair, provided that the minimum of 18 credit hours is completed for the certificate.