

PROMOTE INTERACTION AMONG SCHOLARS AND RESEARCHERS

RESEARCH AND METHODS TRAINING FORUM
The ARM Project* is proud to sponsor 2 ½ days of research workshops

Featuring Kathy Charmaz: Using and Understanding Grounded Theory

Thursday, November 20th: Research and Methods Training Sessions

Session 1: 10:30—Noon (ARM Lab: Olin 273)
Navigating the New IRB Requirements
Sharon McWhorter, ORSSP

12:00—1:00pm (Lunch is provided)

Session 2: 1:00—2:00pm (ARM Lab: Olin 273)
Mixing Methods and Talking Story: Learning from ResearchTalk 2008
Kathy Feltey, Department of Sociology

Session 3: 2:30—3:30pm (ARM Lab: Olin 273)
Pushing the Boundaries: Impressions from The Fourth International Congress of Qualitative Inquiry
Daniela Jauk, University of Akron & Michelle Jacobs, Kent State University

Friday, November 21st: Grounded Theory Workshop with Kathy Charmaz

Session 1: 9:00am—Noon (Law School: L-152)
Grounded Theory Overview

12:00—1:00pm (Lunch is provided)

Session 2: 1:00—4:00pm (Law School: L-152)
Grounded Theory—Ongoing Training and Discussion

Saturday, November 22nd: Student & Faculty Meetings with the “Expert”

9:00am—Noon (ARM Lab: Olin 273)
½ hour slots available with Kathy Charmaz to discuss specific projects
Priority given to doctoral students and junior faculty

All events require advance registration and space is limited. Please contact Teresa Huzyak at tmh39@uakron.edu to register.

*Also supported by the College of Education, the College of Arts and Sciences, the College of Nursing, the Department of Educational Foundations and Leadership, the Department of Sociology, and the Institute of Teaching and Learning