2.0 OVERVIEW OF PROJECT

Scope of Proposal

2.1 Organization Profile

The University of Akron

Each business unit is outlined independently to demonstrate the unique nature of their business and their current service offerings, client base, and number of patients served. The software solution must operate within the UA networking environment and interface with other software applications currently used by UA such as PeopleSoft/Oracle.

Health Services
The purpose of Student Health Services is to assist students in meeting their academic and personal goals by addressing their health concerns by providing quality, cost-effective, culturally competent and compassionate health care and health education. Available services offered include general primary health care; evaluation and treatment of uncomplicated illness and injury; immunizations; tuberculin skin testing; academically required physical exams; referral assistance for health concerns beyond the scope of the department; annual women’s wellness exams; evaluation of sports injuries, etc. The client base is composed of students, staff and faculty. In addition, services are provided on an ad-hoc basis for event-specific requirements such as summer camps. The number of patients served on a yearly basis is 11,000 - 13,000. Furthermore, the Center provides clinical education for undergraduate and graduate nursing students, medical students, residents and students from other health professions to work in a community ambulatory care environment. Students are mentored by interdisciplinary faculty. In 2009, over 5,000 patients were served.

Speech, Language Pathology and Audiology
The mission of the Audiology and Speech Center is to provide education and training for undergraduate and graduate students enrolled in the clinical training program and to provide diagnostic and treatment services to persons with language, speech, and/or hearing problems. The services/programs offered are auditory-based for hearing impairment; augmentative communication and assistive technology center; child articulation/phonology; child development language; acquired speech and language disorders; voice clinic; fluency clinic; diagnostic evaluations, diagnostic audiology services; hearing aid services; pediatric audiology; hearing aid orientation; and assistive listening devices. The client base serves clients of all ages from all over NE Ohio and The University of Akron community.

Proposed System Overview
Electronic billing systems must be in place to become a Medicaid and Medicare provider by June 2014. The EMR selected will serve as The University of Akron’s medical transaction processing system but also be utilized as a teaching tool. A basic description of the proposed system must be provided in order for the Selection Committee to gain a thorough understanding of the standard capabilities of the system. System strengths and weaknesses should be clearly outlined.

Please provide the following information about the proposed system:

- Description of the proposed EMR and system components.
• Provide a brief overview of how the system meets the requirements as outlined in Section 2.3.4 Electronic Medical Record System Detailed Requirements (EMR).
• Brief descriptions of any proposed components or modules necessary to address the requirements which are not considered part of the standard proposed EMR.
• A schedule of the proposed package’s product release history, including the 2010-2011 planned release schedule.
• Additional future plans for software functionality.
• The proposed EMR system must be able to meet the specific needs presented by each business unit.
• Must meet or exceed HIPPA and all related confidentiality requirements.
• Verify user authorization and multiple levels of security.
• Integration within our existing IT infrastructure.
• Ease of administration.
• Must meet or exceed protocols for transmitting patient data.
• Ability to synchronize/update records between different facilities.
• Auditable transactions throughout the system.
• Integrated billing package.

Core Requirements (Fair Use1)

1. Use computerized order entry for medication orders.
2. Implement drug-drug, drug-allergy checks.
3. Generate and transmit permissible prescriptions electronically.
4. Record demographics.
5. Maintain an up-to-date problem list of current and active diagnoses.
6. Maintain active medication list.
7. Maintain active medication allergy list.
8. Record and chart changes in vital signs.
9. Record smoking status for patients 13 years old or older.
10. Implement one clinical decision support rule.
12. Provide patients with an electronic copy of their health information upon request.
13. Provide clinical summaries to patients for each office visit.
14. Capability to exchange key clinical information electronically among providers and patient authorized entities.
15. Protect electronic health information (privacy & security).

Menu Requirements:

1. Implement drug-formulary checks.
2. Incorporate clinical lab-test results into certified EMR as structured data.
3. Generate lists of patients by specific conditions to use for quality improvement, reduction of disparities, research, and outreach.

---

4. Send reminders to patients per patient preference for preventive/follow-up care.
5. Provide patients with timely electronic access to their health information (including lab results, problem list, medication lists, and allergies).
6. Use certified EMR to identify patient-specific education resources and provide to patient if appropriate.
7. Perform medication reconciliation as relevant.
8. Provide summary care record for transitions in care or referrals.
9. Capability to submit electronic data to immunization registries and actual submission.
10. Capability to provide electronic syndromic surveillance data to public health agencies and actual transmission.

A selection committee will examine the technical infrastructure to determine if the product is scalable, secure, and easily supportable given resources of The University of Akron. To achieve this goal will require an application that is easy to use but sufficiently sophisticated to take advantage of the latest technological innovations for participation by all stakeholders. The solution will be integrated with the enterprise student administration database, have the capability to extract data and return data for update.

In addition to facilitating the selection of a single vendor solution, the selection committee will examine whether it is more efficient for the application to be hosted or run internally. Consideration will be made based on cost and effectiveness of operation.

The Purpose of this RFP
The University of Akron is implementing an enterprise transactional processing Electronic Medical Records system for the first time. As technologies evolve and change, The University of Akron is searching for an enabling technology to support the electronic medical record wants and needs of the faculty, staff and students. Thus we are seeking comprehensive descriptions of the functions and capabilities of leading providers in this EMR arena so that we can make an informed decision on the application that is most appropriate for The University of Akron at this time and for the future.

Project Goals and Deliverables
1. Provide a product that is easy to use and intuitive for practitioners, administrators, faculty, and students.
2. Purchase a stable, integrative product from a company with vision who has a significant presence in the electronic medical records marketplace.
3. Comply with all governmental regulations for privacy and security of personal information.
2.2 Project Schedule

The successful Vendor will provide a plan for deployment that maintains the integrity of our data and clinical operations. We are interested in receiving a realistic time estimate and strategy for implementing at all locations plus remote users. We are also requesting suggestions for roll-out that include either simultaneous or staged deployment to the sites.

The schedule below represents the current working timeline. All dates may change at the discretion of the project team.

2.9 References

Provide 2 (two) references, which shall be University references from Universities of similar size or larger that have deployed the exact same EMR version that you are proposing in this response in the following format:

- Institution name
- Types of Resources provided
- Scope of the assignment
- Scope of the services your firm provided
- Reference Contact Name
- Reference Contact Title
- Contact Information, preferably address, telephone and email
- Whether or not this person may be contacted directly

Advertising

In submitting its response, the Vendor agrees not to use the University’s selection decision as a part of any news release or commercial advertising without prior written approval of the University.
Evaluation Approach
The University will evaluate the responses received and will consider the following factors. These factors are not necessarily listed in order of priority:

- Experience and/or credentials in providing the professional services required.
- Ability to address the range of diverse services needs outlined in this proposal.
- Performance of the Vendor as evaluated by the references supplied. The University may contact the references supplied during the evaluation process to determine the performance of the Vendor.

Interview Procedures
Following the review of all responses submitted by the Vendors, the University, at its option, may contact Vendors to schedule on-site interviews in Akron of approximately one hour in duration. The purpose of these interviews would be for the University’s evaluation team to gather more information on certain Vendors and for the Vendors to ask questions of the University with regard to the resources that may be required. Vendors will be responsible for their own costs and expenses associated with the on-site interviews.

3.0 BUSINESS CASES

The project team created two business scenarios that describe processes that the new EMR solution should address. A written response by the Vendor to these scenarios is requested. The Selection Committee will use the responses to the scenarios to judge the ability of the prospective vendor’s proposed solution to meet The University of Akron’s general operational and reporting requirements. The Vendor should indicate whether the functionality is delivered by the software off the shelf or with modifications to fulfill the requirement. Include sample output of any reports requested in the scenario. If modifications or additional software (e.g., custom interfaces not included in software package) are required to achieve full functionality, additional explanation or screen samples, etc. may be attached to this section. Reference the scenario ID for all explanations.

Business Cases are detailed in the following table:

4.0 GENERAL PROJECT SPECIFICATIONS

4.1. Project Management

The successful vendor will name a project manager as a single point of contact for the entire project. This person must be empowered to authorize changes, and will be expected to escalate any problems or issues that cannot be immediately resolved.

The University of Akron will provide a designated project manager for the implementation. This individual will provide a single point of contact for the vendor, and will assist in coordinating work between the institution and the vendor. Any disputes will be resolved by the project executive team and a management representative of the vendor who has the proper authority.

Regular status reports will be given by the vendor’s project manager in writing, at a mutually agreed upon time after contract award or verbally whenever requested by The University of Akron project manager. These status reports will recap work completed, provide a summary of next steps and bring attention to any risks or delays in completing implementation.

4.2. Change Control and Problem Resolution

Specific plans for change control, problem management and problem resolution are required. An issues tracking tool that provides transparency on the status of problem resolution is expected.

4.3. Acceptance Testing

Full acceptance test plans are required before implementation. These plans should identify the criteria by which the system is judged to have met the requirements of the contract. All problems found during testing should be resolved by the vendor, at no expense to the institution.

4.4. User Training

All system users must be trained before full roll out to each site. The University of Akron will need to plan well in advance for the time and resources needed for users to complete training.

4.5. System Integration and Interoperability

The system must be able to upload data or interface with other University of Akron systems such as PeopleSoft for single-sign on integration.

The supplier further agrees that every sub-contract order given for the supplying of this order will contain a provision requiring non-discrimination pursuant to Federal Executive Orders 11246 as amended by 11375 and State Executive Orders dated January 27, 1972, and November 30, 1973, and any breach thereof may be regarded as a material breach of the contract or purchase order.

5.5. Proposal Content

The information provided herein is intended to assist vendors to respond properly to this Request for Proposal. However, it is not intended to limit a proposal's content or to exclude any relevant or essential data. Vendors are encouraged to include additional information that will substantiate their service capabilities, product quality, and support commitment.

5.6. Right to Accept or Reject

The University of Akron reserves the right to select one, several, or none of the proposals submitted. The University may award a contract based upon initial proposals received without further discussion of such proposals. Accordingly, each initial proposal should be submitted with the vendor’s most favorable price and service capabilities. Further, the University reserves the right to accept or reject all or parts of any proposal received and to waive any informality or technicality in any proposal received. Price alone will not be the sole determining factor in the selection process. All proposals should be valid for a period of at least 180 days from the proposal due date. Any exceptions to this request must be addressed by the vendor in their proposal. The University reserves the sole right to determine what is considered "equivalent" or "equal." The University also reserves the right to request samples for testing and evaluation. Any request will be reasonable in quantity, as deemed by the University, so as not to cause any undue financial hardship or burden to the vendor but any such request will not be billable to the University and any vendor that fails to supply samples upon request may be excluded from further consideration.

5.7. State and Local Taxes

The University is exempt from Ohio sales tax and most Federal excise taxes. Exemption certification information appears on all purchase orders issued by the University and will be furnished upon request. Such taxes should not be included in quoted prices. However, if the supplier believes any taxes apply, they shall be shown separately. If not shown, they will be considered an expense of the vendor.
5.8. Cash Discounts

The University of Akron will endeavor to use any cash terms offered, and these may be considered in determining the final net price depending on the discount period.

In the event that the University of Akron is entitled to a cash discount, the period of computations will commence on the date of delivery or receipt of a correctly completed invoice, whichever is later. If an adjustment is necessary due to damage, the cash discount period shall commence on the date final approval for payment is authorized. If a discount is part of the contract, but the invoice does not reflect the existence of a cash discount, the University is entitled to a cash discount with the period commencing on the date it is determined that a cash discount applies.

5.17. University Responsibilities

This document is mailed as a courtesy. The University assumes no responsibility for failure to send it to all interested agencies or companies. Other interested vendors may pick up copies of these specifications by contacting the Director of Purchasing.

Responses to these specifications, plus any additional information presented, will be used by the University to select the successful vendor. The acceptance of any proposal shall be subject to the University and the selected vendor entering into a signed, written agreement, mutually acceptable to both parties.

The University will not be responsible for any oral instructions, nor should a proposal be based upon verbal information from any employee of the University unless authorized by the Director of Purchasing in advance.

5.18. Assignment

The University of Akron may provide an electronic version of the specifications/RFP as a convenience to interested companies. Electronic copies are made from a master, print copy of an original document (Original) resident in the Department of Purchasing of the University. Any prospective bidder using any electronic copy of this RFP accepts the obligation and duty to compare the electronic copy with the Original and verify accuracy and consistency of the documents. EXHIBIT A

PREFERENCE TO UNITED STATES AND OHIO PRODUCTS:

State of Ohio AM. H.B. 271 requires that preference be given to products produced or mined in the United States and in Ohio.

A. BUY AMERICA:

Bids will be evaluated to determine that a bidder's offering is for a "Domestic Source End Product", as defined in the Federal Buy America Act, 41 U.S.C.A. Section 10a-10d. Any bidder's offering that does not meet this requirement shall be rejected, except in those circumstances where a determination has been made that certain articles, materials and supplies are not mined, produced or manufactured in the U.S. in sufficient and reasonably available commercial quantities and of a satisfactory quality.

B. BUY OHIO:

Following the above determination, all remaining bids and proposals shall be evaluated so as to give preference to Ohio bids or bidders who are located in a border state, provided that the border state imposes no greater restrictions than contained in Sections 125.09 and 125.11 of the Ohio revised code.

2. Ohio products are defined as products mined, excavated, produced, manufactured, raised, or grown in the state by a person where the input of Ohio products, labor, skill, or other services constitutes no less than 25% of the manufactured cost.

4. Where it has been determined that selection of the lowest Ohio bid, if any, will not result in an excessive price or a disproportionately inferior product or service, the contract shall be awarded to the low Ohio bid at the bid price quoted. Where it is advantageous to award the contract to other than an Ohio bid or bid from a border state, then the contract shall be awarded accordingly. ("Excessive Price" shall be construed to mean a price that exceeds by more than five per cent the lowest price submitted on a non-Ohio bid).

C. HOW TO QUALIFY UNDER THESE PROGRAMS:

To qualify for the domestic Ohio preference (Buy Ohio), or to qualify as having significant Ohio economic presence, pursuant to sections 125.09 and 125.11 of the Ohio revised code and section 123:5-1-26, of the Ohio Administrative Code, bidders must complete the information on the following page and return it with their bid.

All proposals submitted are taken by the University as offers and acceptance shall occur only by issuance of a University purchase order or where appropriate, upon execution of a mutually agreeable signed, written contract.
1. The University Purchase Order, together with any specifications, schedules, exhibits, riders, or other writings that may be attached thereto or provided for hereunder and by reference made a part of, sets forth the complete and final agreement between The University and Seller in respect of the subject matter of the purchase; and no amendments or modifications of or supplements to the provisions of the Purchase Order will be valid and binding upon The University unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of The University. In the event of any inconsistency between these Terms and Conditions and the provisions on the face of the Purchase Order or on any supplement attached thereto, the provisions contained on the face of the Purchase Order or on such supplement shall control. Seller’s acceptance or, at the election of The University, Seller’s commencement of performance of the Purchase Order shall constitute acceptance by Seller of all of the terms and conditions of a University Purchase Order.

2. The term “goods,” as used in University Purchase Orders, shall mean the materials, supplies, articles, equipment, structures, work or services covered by the Purchase Order.

3. Seller expressly warrants that all goods will conform to the specifications, drawings, samples, and other descriptions furnished or specified by The University and will be merchantable, suitable for the purposes intended, and free from defects in material, workmanship, design and title. In addition to any other remedies The University may have, The University may reject goods not conforming to the foregoing warranties, whether or not The University shall have previously accepted such goods or any prior payment made thereon. If such goods are rejected, The University shall in writing notify Seller, and The University, at its option and at the expense and risk of Seller, may either return such rejected goods to Seller or hold them for such disposal as Seller shall indicate, without notice to any other person whatever, notwithstanding any assignment by Seller of this Purchase Order or of any sums thereunder. Any payments made on such rejected goods shall immediately be refunded to The University.

4. The quantity of goods, as indicated on the face of the Purchase Order, must not be exceeded without specific authority in writing being first obtained from The University’s Department of Purchasing. Any quantity of goods delivered to The University in an amount in excess of the quantity of goods indicated on the face of the Purchase Order may be returned to Seller at Seller’s cost.

5. Unless Seller’s failure to make timely delivery of the goods is excused in accordance with the provisions of paragraph six (6) hereof, Seller’s failure to make timely delivery, or Seller’s breach of any of the other terms and conditions of a University Purchase Order, shall constitute sufficient cause for The University, at its option to terminate the Purchase Order either in whole or in part and to charge Seller for any damages or losses The University may sustain as a result of Seller’s default. Any failure by The University to exercise this option with respect to any installment shall not constitute waiver with respect to subsequent installments. In the event, Seller becomes insolvent or makes a transfer for the benefit of creditors in bankruptcy or any other insolvency proceedings are instituted by or against Seller, The University shall have the right to immediately terminate the Purchase Order.

6. Seller, upon giving prompt written notice to The University, shall not be liable for delay or failure to supply the goods orders, nor shall The University be liable for failure to accept the goods, if such delay or failure is due to causes beyond the reasonable control of Seller or The University, as the case may be, including, but not limited to acts of God, force majeure, fire, malicious mischief, accident, transportation tie-up, riot, strike, slowdown or labor stoppage of any kind or act of any government, foreign or domestic. Any such delay or failure shall give The University the right, at its option, to cancel all or such portion of the Purchase Order as it may elect.

7. An invoice indicating the proper University Purchase Order Number MUST BE PROVIDED IMEDIATELY AFTER SHIPMENT OF GOODS. Unless written notice to the contrary is given to The University by the Seller prior to shipment, all invoices for goods shipped on the Order shall be rendered by and payable to Seller. When prepaid transportation charges are incurred upon direction of The University, the prepaid receipted transportation bill must support the invoice.
Invoice payment dates will be computed from the date of shipment or from the date a valid invoice is received by The University, whichever is later.

8. All applicable provisions of the State of Ohio and federal laws relative to equal employment opportunity are incorporated into University purchases.

9. All rights and remedies of The University specifically set forth in Purchase Orders shall be cumulative and in addition to any other or further rights and remedies provided in law or equity.
Failure of The University to insist upon strict performance of any term or condition of a Purchase Order shall not be deemed to be a waiver of The University’s rights and remedies. No waiver by
The University of any default by Seller of any term or condition of a Purchase Order shall be effective unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of The University, nor shall any such waiver constitute a waiver of any other default or of the same default on a future occasion.

10. University Purchase Orders shall be governed by the applicable laws of the State of Ohio in all instances, including but not limited to terminations bearing a reasonable relation to this state, to another state or nation.

11. The University of Akron is exempt from State of Ohio Tax and most Federal Taxes. The person whose signature appears on University Purchase Orders hereby certifies that he/she is an officer of The University of Akron and that he/she is authorized to execute tax exemption certificates and that
