

1 Educator Login (eLearning Center)

As an educator, you are able to view your MEDS Online Product by following these instructions. The MEDS Online Account Manager will provide your Institution Administrator with an "Administrator Class Code". Educators follow the same directions given to students to register themselves at MEDS eLearning Center. Once successfully registered, you activate the "Administrator Class Code" at your My Account Page to access the online product.

Educators, follow these steps to access your MEDS Online product(s):

Note: You must have Internet Explorer version 5.5 or higher for the program to run properly.

1. Go to MEDS website www.medspub.com.
2. Click on the link for the eLearning Center.

3. If you are a new user, click on the "New Users" tab. If you are a returning user, log in using your existing user name and password.

The screenshot shows the MEDS eLearning Center login page. On the left, there is a navigation menu with links for Home, Students, Educators, and Healthcare Facilities. The main content area is titled "MEDS eLearning Center: Helping Students and New Nurses Succeed on the NCLEX Exam & in their". Below this title, there are two main sections: "Registered User Login" and "New User Login". The "Registered User Login" section includes a "Welcome to MEDS e-Learning Center!" message and a "New User Login" button. The "New User Login" section includes a "New User Login" button. Below these sections, there are buttons for "Students", "Educators", and "Healthcare Facilities". At the bottom, there is a "FEATURED ONLINE PRODUCT:" section for "StarNurse Exam-A-Day".

4. New users must fill out the Registration Form. Note: It is very important to record/remember your User Name and Password, as you are required to enter this information each time you access the eLearning Center. Click "Finish Registration" when you have completed the form.
